MONDAY, MARCH 7. 1743.

... we laſt arrived a Mail from France, and another from Holland.

Peterſbourg, Feb. 16.

ON the 14th was celebrated the Anniverſary of the Inſtitution of the Order of St. Anne, of which his Imperial Highneſs the Great Maſter. The Court were Yeſterday into Mourning for 3 Months for the Margravine, ad Dowager of Brandenbourg. The Prudence and Moderation, join'd to the Magnanimity and ...neſs of our moſt gracious Sovereign, gives us Rea... to hope for ſolid and laſting Felicity under her Go...ment, which is ſtrengthned by the happy Succeſs ...h hitherto has attended all her Deſigns. The great ...t of the Succeſſion is not only ſettled to the general ...faction of the Subjects of this Empire, but is alſo ...anted by the principal Powers of Europe. The ...ms offer'd to the Swedes are ſo advantageous to them, ...have ſo viſible a Tendency to the preventing all fu... Diſputes, that no Queſtion can be made of their ...er concluding Peace, or being obliged to carry on ...r equally burdenſome and unjuſt, under the great... Diſadvantages. We have certain Intelligence from ...Frontiers of Perſia, that the Shah Nadir has actually ...d the Baku in his Return to Iſpahan, and that he ...ſhortly ſend an Ambaſſador extraordinary hither, to ...e her Imperial Majeſty of his ſincere Deſire to main... the Peace at preſent ſubſiſting between the two ...pires, and to inform her that his late March towards ...Frontiers was with no other View than to reſtrain ...g of his own Subjects who were diſpoſed to revolt. ...wever, all the neceſſary Precautions are taken for ſe...ing us from any ſudden Attempt on that Side, and ...en with ſuch Effect, that all the Nations on the Fron... of Perſia have actually ſued to her Imperial Majeſty ...her Protection. The Grand Duke has appointed Ba... Mardefeldt, Brother to the Pruſſian Miniſter, his En... to the Court of Great Britain, and he will ſpeedily ...out for London, in order to execute a Commiſſion of ...t Importance, in favour of the Duke of Holſtein Uten, ...Imperial Highneſs's Uncle.

Stockholm, Feb. 22. The Order of Peaſants have by ...r great Firmneſs carried their Point, in relation to ...impriſon'd Generals, and a new Committee is actu...y appointed for the rehearing their Affair; which Com...tee is to conſiſt of 7 Deputies from each Order, and ...y are to examine not only their military Conduct, ...alſo that of the whole Adminiſtration, in reſpect to ...Commencement and carrying on the War with Ruſ... The Order of Peaſants attempted likewiſe to get ...Committee chang'd which has under its Conſidera... the Affair of the Succeſſion, but the other three Or... unanimouſly rejected that Propoſition.

Copenhagen, March 5, The French Miniſter here has ...ken unwearied Pains to traverſe the Deſigns of the ...rt of Great Britain, in order to defeat the Treaty of ...ſidy; and the general Opinion is, that he will ſuc... in it. We continue our naval Armament without ...leaſt Relaxation. There are now 12 Ships of the ...e, and 6 Frigates, ready to ſail; which is the largeſt ...d fineſt Fleet this Crown ever equipp'd. The Land ...ces alſo are ready to march, but whether, or with ...ir View, remains ſtill a Secret. This however is cer..., that all theſe mighty Preparations have been made ...thout the King's being oblig'd to lay any new Tax ...on his Subjects.

Lisbon, Feb. 5. If his Majeſty's Health is not as much ...ended as his Subjects could wiſh, it is however ſome ...isfaction that he does not grow worſe. The Trade ...this Capital was never in ſo flouriſhing a Condition ...ſince the breaking out of the War between Great Bri... and Spain, which is owing to the prudent Meaſures ...ken by our Court in reference to Foreign Affairs. All ...uick Buſineſs is carried on by her Majeſty, who by ...e Prudence and Moderation has gain'd the univerſal ...ve of the People.

Ferrara, Feb. 18. The Spaniſh Army is not above 6000 ...ong; there are no leſs than 2000 wounded Men in the ...ſpitals, excluſive of 300 Officers below the Degree of ...Major, and 70 of a ſuperior Rank; amongſt whom ...the Generals d'Arcos, d'Aranda, d'Atriſco, Macdonel ...d Villaria. The Auſtrians have actually paſs'd the Pa..., and are canton'd between that River and this City. ...ey have advanc'd two Bodies of Troops into the Bo...neſe. The firſt has taken Poſt at Cento, the ſecond ...St. John's. They expect ſpeedily a Reinforcement of ...ne Thouſand Men from Tyrol.

Vienna, Feb. 23. Count Konigſegg Erps is ſet out from hence for Bruſſels, in order to take upon him the Government of the Low Countries till the Arrival of Prince Charles of Lorrain. The Kingdom of Hungary, and its Dependancies, will furniſh this Year to her Majeſty 48,000 Men, of this Number 12,000 have actually paſs'd this City in their March to Bavaria. Count Coloredo having brought her Majeſty an exact Relation of the Battle at Campo Santo, it has been publiſh'd by her Majeſty's Command. According to this Account, it appears that the Enemy intended to have repaſs'd the Panaro, if the Auſtrians, by marching towards them, had not prevented them. The greateſt Part of Count Traun's Cavalry were poſted on the Left Wing, and by an unlucky Motion expos'd themſelves to the Fire of the Spaniſh Foot poſted in the Caſſines, which threw them into great Confuſion, from whence they were with ſome Difficulty recover'd by the Count de St. Pierre. The Battle laſted till two Hours after Sun-ſet, the Night hindering the Auſtrians from continuing the Purſuit. Count Traun gives the higheſt Commendations to the Piedmonteſe General Count Aſpremont, and to the Serjeant General Senſan; he likewiſe applauds the Bravery of General Hochenau, who commanded the Sclavonians, who behav'd admirably, as did alſo the Huſſars.

Ratisbon, Marth 4. The firſt Diviſion of the French Recruits arrived ten Days ago at Donawert, and are expected To-morrow at Stadtamhoff. A vaſt Number of all Sorts of Veſſels are getting together at Ingolſtadt and Donawert, for embarking theſe Recruits as faſt as they arrive. There has been a prodigious Deſertion on the Road, and Abundance are already fallen ſick. The French Commiſſaries have bought up an immenſe Quantity of Proviſions in Swabia, which they have ordered to be tranſported to Ulm, for the more convenient ſending it into Bavaria. The Prince of Conti paſſed thro' this City on Friday laſt, in his Way to Paris.

Franckfort, March 6. Baron Seckendorff, Nephew to the Field-Marſhal, is lately arrived here, and has brought an Account of what paſſed at an Interview between his Uncle and Marſhal Broglio at Straubingen. The Britiſh Miniſter, Mr. Villiers, is daily expected at Mentz, and we ſhall then know what Iſſue the Conferences that are carried on there will have, which every Body here wiſhes may be a Peace between his Imperial and her Hungarian Majeſty.

Duſſeldorp, March 8. On the 5th our Sovereign's Declaration was publiſh'd here with great Solemnity. It imports, 'That the Elector Palatine our moſt Serene 'Duke never took formerly any Part in the preſent 'War. That his Electoral Highneſs never had the leaſt 'Intention to attack the Hereditary Dominions of the 'Houſe of Auſtria, or to form any Pretenſions upon 'them; ſo that he deſires to be conſidered as Neuter, 'and declares himſelf ſo to be at preſent. That as to 'the Troops which his Electoral Highneſs has furniſh'd 'to the Emperor, they cannot create any juſt Objection, 'ſince there is alſo a Body of Heſſians in the Imperial 'Army in Bavaria; which the Court of Great Britain 'is ſo far from conſidering as a Breach of the Neutrality 'of the Houſe of Caſſel, that it has taken a Body of the 'ſame Troops into its own Pay; ſo that it cannot be 'taken amiſs, that the Elector Palatine, as a Member of 'the Empire, has ſent a Body of his Troops into Bava'ria, to aſſiſt the Chief of the Empire attacked in his 'own Dominions; the rather, becauſe his Highneſs 'was ſo far from taking this Step with any View to the 'diſturbing the Peace of the Empire, that his ſole In'tention was to contribute thereby to the ſpeedy reſtor'ing it.'

His Excellency the Earl of Stair has cauſed it to be ſignified to the Baron de Merode, appointed by his Serene Highneſs Commiſſary to the Engliſh Troops, that unleſs he takes the proper Meaſures for providing the Forces with the neceſſary Forage, he muſt not be ſurprized if Orders ſhould be given them to take it where it can be found.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, March 12. 'On the 7th his Majeſty conferr'd 'with M. d'Argenſon and M. Belleiſle, and had particu'larly a long Converſation with the latter on the Subject 'of his Retreat from Prague.

'Thirteen Lieutenant-Generals and 28 Marſhals de 'Camp are nam'd to ſerve in Bavaria, under the Com'mand of M. Broglio; who has, indeed, ſollicited very 'warmly Leave to retire, but his Majeſty notwithſtand'ing is reſolved to continue him in his Service.

'The King has been pleaſed to beſtow the Govern'ment of Strasbourg, vacant by the Death of Marſhal 'D'Aſfeldt, on M. de Broglio, who at the ſame time 'reſigns that of Bergues, which he had before.

'The Office of Director-General of all the Fortifica'tions in the Kingdom, which was alſo poſſeſſed by 'M. d'Aſfeldt, is divided between the Secretaries at War 'and of the Marines; that is to ſay, M. d'Argenſon, in 'virtue of the former Employment, will have the Care 'of the Inland Fortreſſes, and the Count de Maurepas of 'the Maritime Fortifications.

'The King declared on Friday laſt, that the Prince of 'Conti was on the Road hither. M. Bignon, Intendant 'of the Army in Flanders, and Counſellor of State, died 'here on the 8th, at the Age of 45.'

LONDON.

The Auſtrian Troops now marching into the Duchy of Juliers, are compoſed of two Columns, which conſiſt of 15,626 Foot, and 4773 Horſe.

Count Joſeph de Byersberg, Lieutenant-General of Foot, died on Feb. 18. N. S. at Mantua, of 17 Wounds he received in the Battle of Campo Santo.

The Marquis de la Chetardie has received Orders from the French Court to return to Petersbourg, where the preſent French Miniſter has but an indifferent Reception.

Laſt Saturday the Crew of the Mary Galley was paid at the Pay-Office in Broad-ſtreet, when a Sharper contrived to convey 13 Guineas from one of them; which was immediately miſs'd by the Tar, and he ſeeing a ſuſpicious Fellow amongſt them, ſeized him; but the Fellow had had the Dexterity to convey the Money away to another; ſo that all the Satisfaction the Sailor could get was threſhing him heartily.

The ſame Day a young Woman was committed to the Compter for the barbarous Murder of her Child about four Months old, by cutting its Throat, and then throwing it into a Boghouſe. The ſame Night the Coroner's Inqueſt brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder.

Laſt Friday Capt. David Wilkey, many Years in the Eaſt-India Company's Service, was ſuddenly taken ill at Tom's Coffee-houſe in Covent-garden, and died immediately.

Yeſterday the Right Rev. Dr. Matthias Mawſon, Lord Biſhop of Chicheſter, preach'd before his Majeſty and the Royal Family, at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

On Saturday Night laſt the Corpſe of the Lady Frances Bentinck, youngeſt Daughter of his Grace the Duke of Portland, was interr'd in a Vault under the Chancel in St. Margaret's Church, Weſtminſter, amongſt ſome of the Anceſtors of that Noble Family.

To-morrow the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor will hold the Third General Seal after Hilary-Term, at Lincoln's-Inn Hall.

This Day the Aſſizes begins at Chelmsford for the County of Eſſex.

As it does likewiſe at York for the County of York.

Saturday Night laſt there was a grand Maſquerade for ſeveral young Lords and Ladies, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at his Grace the Duke of Richmond's in Privy-garden, it being the Birth-day of Lord George, youngeſt Son to his Grace.

His Majeſty's Ship the Wincheſter being unfit for Service, is ordered to be laid up, and her Men turned over, Half to the Auguſta, and Half to the Torrington.

Now upon Sale, Strong and Fine-flavour'd Batavia Arrack, at 12 s. 6 d. per Gallon, if taken from the Eaſt India Houſe. Inquire of the Clerks at the Brandy Warehouſe in Lombard-ſtreet, where Samples of the ſaid Arrack may be taſted.

From the London Gazette.

Whitehall, March 5. His Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel, commanded by Capt. Geary, arriv'd in the Downs the 3d Inſt. with a Prize diſcover'd by him at Sea on the 10th of Feb. laſt, in the Latitude of 36. 59 N. Madera bearing S. 24. 15 E. 92 Leagues Diſtance, and taken the Day following. She is a French Ship, called the Pierre Joſeph, hired by the Spaniards at Cadiz, and bound from Vera Cruz and the Havannah to that Port, as was confeſſed by ſome of her Officers, for her Papers were all thrown over-board when ſhe firſt ſaw the Man of War.

Her

Her Supercargo at first conceal'd himself, but afterwards appeared, and was found to be a Spaniard. She had also several Spanish Passengers on board in disguise. The Master was French, but he acknowledged he had no Interest whatsoever in the Cargo, which belonged entirely to the Spaniards. Her Cargo consisted of 65 Chests of Silver, 5 Bales of Cochineal, 37 Bales of Indigo, and one Case of Vanel, 60 Cases of Sugar, and 3500 Hides. She pretended to have been bound to Mississippi, but the Master owned she had not been there, nor at any other Ports in America besides La Vera Cruz and the Havannah, having taken in her Lading of Quicksilver, Wine and Brandy, at Cadiz, for the former Place, and touched at the latter in her return, to take in Sugar and Hides, and from thence sailed in Company with five French Ships more, under Convoy of a Spanish Galleon, all bound to Cadiz, and parted from them 8 Days before she was taken.

The said Capt. Geary, on the 29th of January last, in Company with the Mistake Sloop, which was a Prize he had before taken, and had put some of his Men on board her, burnt a Spanish Privateer Sloop on the Shore of a little Village called Paul, near the West End of the Island of Tonshall in the Maderas, whereon she had been forced by the Squirrel and the Mistake Sloop: This Privateer was called the St. Elmo, and had on the 22d of the same Month chased a Sloop from New York, off the West of the Island.

Admiralty-Office, March 3, 1742.

WHEREAS many Seamen have from time to time inconsiderately deserted his Majesty's Service, by leaving the Ships they belong'd to, as they could find Opportunities for so doing, for which Crime they have incurred the Los of their Wages, and are punishable with Death by a Court Martial; but my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being willing to impute such Desertion to a Rashness which most of them soon repent of, and would return to their Ships, but that they are terrified therefrom by their Apprehensions of Punishment; and their Lordships, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, being inclined to shew them so much Indulgence as to remove such Apprehensions, do hereby declare, That such of the said Men who return on board the Ships to which they did belong, on or before the Second Day of next Month; or, in case those Ships are gone abroad, if they go on board some other of his Majesty's Ships, they shall not be punished in any Manner whatsoever, on account of the Crime they have committed, in withdrawing themselves from his Majesty's Service, excepting such as have been guilty of Mutiny, or any other notorious Crimes: And as a farther Encouragement to them, their Lordships are pleased moreover to declare, That such as shall so return, shall have their R's taken off, and be paid their Wages for the Ships from which they ran. But their Lordships do also think fit to declare, That if any of the Men who have deserted as aforesaid, do not make a proper Use of the Indulgence hereby offered them, by returning to his Majesty's Service within the Time abovementioned, they must expect to be strictly sought after, and in case they are apprehended, be brought to a Court Martial, and treated as the Law directs.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1742.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having ordered the Petty Officers and Foremast Men belonging to the Winchester, lately arrived from the Mediterranean, to be turned over, Half into the Augusta, fitting at Chatham, and the other Half into the Torrington, fitting at Portsmouth, in which Ships they will be paid their Wages for the Winchester, and Two Months Wages Advance before they proceed to Sea; And the Leave of Absence given to the said Men expiring on the 13th instant, their Lordships do strictly charge them at the Expiration of that Time, to repair forthwith on board the said Ships Augusta and Torrington accordingly, on Pain, in case they fail to do so, of not only losing the aforementioned Payments, but also of being Apprehended and Tried at a Court Martial as Deserters. If the said Men apply to the Navy Board, they will be allowed Conduct Money, and Carriage for their Chests and Bedding to Chatham and Portsmouth; but if any of those who are to repair to Chatham, chuse to go down in the Tender which will be appointed to carry their Chests and Bedding, rather than to travel by Land, the Navy Board will cause them to be received on board such Tender, and carried to their Ship at Chatham.
